NATURAL GAS DISCOVERED. - Natural gas has been discovered in the Argentine Republic. Dr. Arata, a local chemist, has by analysis found it to be quite as rich in heating and lighting power as that found in the United States. As the lack of fuel for manufacturing purposes has been one of the greatest draw-backs in the Argentine Republic this is con-

Assistance Rendered .- Capt. Fengar, comnanding the revenue steamer Woodbury, has reported to the Treasury Department that during the winter season just closed he has rendered assistance to thirty-four vessels in distress. The valua-tion of ships and cargoes was $515,175. Capt. Fengar says that the weather was unusually severe along the eastern coast and that naviga-tion was both difficult and dangerous. During the winter the Woodbury cruised 5,073 knots.

To INQUIRE INTO THE WRECK .- As the Galena and tug Nina, which were wrecked on Gay Head, have been floated and sheltered in har-Head, have been floated and sheltered in har-bor the Navy Department has now leisure to turn its attention to the causes that led to the wreck and to the conduct of the officers and men of the naval vessels. A court of inquiry will be appointed today and Capt. E. O. Matthews, now at Boston, will be president of the court. Upon its findings the department will base its decision as to whether or not a

BLAINE'S LETTER STRONGLY COMMENDED Secretary Blaine's letter to Marquis Imperiali is very strongly commended by men of all shades of politics here and the opinion is widely expressed that its columness and courtesy of

Influence and who are reasonable and wise. Their influence may not be felt just at this moment of excitement, when political necessities have driven the ministry to a rash course, but it will be felt in time to prevent anything like war. But we should exercise some power as well as diplomacy. Italy has no money to carry on a war and she cannot hope for the assistance from England that would be necessary. She does not want war: ARMY ORDERS.—Second Lieutenant Samuel

Ex-Representative Dalzell said this morning that he had read Mr. Blaine's letter, but the only comment he wanted to make on the episode was that this letter was highly creditable to Mr. Blaine.

SELF-CONSTITUTED CRITICS. Some self-appointed special envoys extra-ordinary on behalf of the United States and themselves in this Fava affair appear strongly disposed to lay the blame of the entire compli-cation upon the tone of Mr. Blaine's first tele-gram to Gov. Nicholls, which, they assert, "gave his whole case away," and brought on the trouble with the Italian government. The friends of the Secretary are at a loss to see just how this can be. Even if Mr. Blaine's telegram was unwise or undiplomatic, they ask, which they do not ad-mit to have been the case, "How has it deep-ened the complication?"

One of Mr. Blaine's staunchest admirers said to a STAR reporter this morning: "I cannot for the life of me understand how on earth the Italian government could have taken umbrage at that telegram. If anything it should have pacified it. Had Mr. Blaine been any milder in his tone the Roman court would today be twice as vehement in its Matthews, now at Boston, will be president of the court. Upon its findings the department will base its decision as to whether or not a court-martial will be ordered.

The report has not yet been received.

PITTEBURG, Pa., April 2.- The following tele:

gram has been received at the Frick Company' office in this city: expressed that its calmness and courtesy of tone, coupled with irreproachable dignity, will bring the Italian government to a calmer consideration of the matter, unless their political intrigues at home compel them to be unreasonable. There is considerable public indignation expressed at the attitude taken in the matter by Italian-Americans, who have long been citizens of the United States, and are now taking sides with the Italian government and demanding satisfaction. There is a feeling that if these men are American citizens, have taken the oath of allegiance to the United States, they are no longer subjects of Italy whose duty it is to take up arms in her defense.

As one gentleman in public life remarked wittily today: "Italy would have no difficulty in landing troops in America; they could be landed under our immigration laws."

EX-REPRESENTATIVE FARQUEAR'S VIEWS.

A private dispatch just received from Greene burg says eleven men were killed and twenty seven wounded in the Morewood riot the morning. The dead miners are all foreigners TWO REGIMENTS ORDERED OUT. Gov. Pattison has ordered the tenth regiment of Washington, Pa., and eighteenth regiment of Pittsburg to assemble and proceed a once to the coke regions.

CONFLICT OVER THE DEAD. A special from Scottdale says: The dead met were carried into the company store at Morewood. The strikers demanded the bodies of wood. The strikers demanded the bodies of the victims, but were refused, and the place is now surrounded by an armed mob of over 2,000 men, who say they will burn everything on the premises unless the dead bodies are given up. Feeling here is very bitter among the workmen, who denounce the action of the deputies in no uncertain terms.

The killed are:

None of the dead were naturalized. Mr. H. C. Frick, the owner of the Morewood plant, was seen at his office in Pittsburg this morning and in an interview said:

"We placed our men and property in the hands of the lawful authorities for protection. hands of the lawful authorities for protection. The sheriff in the Morewood case has done his duty; the governor is doing his. This is no quarrel about wages, but only whether our-men working are to be shot down at midnight

At noon a train left Greensburg fitted with deputies, all armed and prepared for a long siege. A Greensburg, Pa., special says that at another attack three more were killed. Twentyfive of the rioters were wounded in the last scuffle. This story has not been confirmed from Morewood, although H. C. Frick's information is that eleven rioters were killed.
